

REQUIREMENT FOR FULFILLING OEM STATUS FOR “Split Air Conditioner Including Green AC, Wall Mount Type (V2)”

Following points shall be considered applicable with reference to qualification as OEM for Category “Split Air Conditioner Including Green AC, Wall Mount Type (V2)”.

1) Cases where the applicant firm/ vendor is having in house Manufacturing facilities:

To qualify as an OEM, applicant firm/ vendor shall be the manufacturer provided the activities of complete assembly, final QC testing as per BIS requirements, packaging, and dispatch etc are carried out inhouse. In addition to the above least one of following four major subassemblies/ components manufacturing shall also be available: -

- I) Manufacturing, assembling and testing of evaporator and condenser coil.
- II) Manufacturing, assembling, testing of PCB/ controllers used in the assembly of split air conditioners.
- III) Manufacturing, assembling, testing of compressor used in the assembly of split air conditioners.
- IV) Manufacturing, assembling, testing of sheet metal, plastic body parts moulding, painting etc.

Further to ensure consistency and quality of the system supplied, the applicant firm/ vendor shall have a valid agreement with another entities for the left-out components as mentioned above, for which they do not have manufacturing facilities. Vendor Assessment agency shall take into account of validity period of such agreement while deciding the validity of Vendor Assessment Report.

2) Cases where the applicant firm/ vendor is getting product manufactured through Contract Manufacturing:

To ensure consistency and quality of the split air conditioners supplied, the applicant firm/ vendor shall have a valid agreement with contract manufacturing firm. Contract manufacturer shall be required to have activities of complete assembly, final QC testing as per BIS requirements, packaging, and dispatch etc are carried out inhouse. In addition to the above at least one of following four major subassemblies/ components manufacturing shall also be available: -

- I) Manufacturing/assembling/testing of evaporator and condenser coil.
- II) Manufacturing/assembling/testing of PCB/ controllers used in the assembly of split air conditioners.

- III) Manufacturing/assembling/testing of compressor used in the assembly of split air conditioners.
- IV) Manufacturing/assembling/testing of sheet metal, plastic body parts moulding, painting etc.

Further to ensure consistency and quality of the system supplied, the applicant firm/ vendor shall have a valid agreement with another entities for the left-out components as mentioned above, for which they do not have manufacturing facilities. Vendor Assessment agency shall take into account of validity period of such agreement while deciding the validity of Vendor Assessment Report.

3) Additional Requirements to Qualify as a Green AC Manufacturer / OEM:

To qualify as a Green AC OEM/manufacturer, the applicant firm/Vendor shall also additionally fulfil all the below mentioned points as mentioned in green ac document “Green Room Air Conditioner Specifications (Draft)”.

I) ISEER Values for green AC as per BEE-

a) up to 3517 W (upto 1 TR) – ISEER 5.8

b) 3517 W to 5280 W (1 to 1.5 TR) – ISEER 5.33

II) The applicant firm / vendor should have IS/ ISO 14001 EMS (Environmental Management System) certification.

III) The packaging material used in packing of green AC should be made of recycled or bio-degradable materials.

IV) The applicant firm / vendor must fulfil all the product and organizational specifications mentioned in green AC document to qualify as green AC manufacturer / vendor.

4) Vendor assessment agencies shall ensure that all relevant details of agreements, BIS license, compliance to Green AC etc. are captured in VA report.